Issue 101

Nov/Dec 2015

We were pleased to have two baby baptisms during November. Peter John and Matthew James. As we brought them to the Lord for His blessing, we were happy to remember that Jesus said “Let the children come to me.”

As we are approaching Advent and Christmas time, let’s really appreciate what it meant for God to ‘become flesh’ as we remember the baby, born in squalor and scandal, in a stable at Bethlehem. May we rejoice once more in the great love which God brought them, and extends to us, now.

Every Christmas Blessing

Remember, remember.....

Please remember to pray for all our missionary friends over the Christmas period - asking that God will bless and keep them, as they serve Him in the work to which he has called them.

The proceeds from our Church Coffee morning on November 28th will be in aid of Overseas Missions Work.

Please support this special activity.

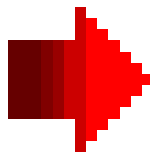

Bible Comes Alive

on Monday and Tuesday , 9th & 10th November for children from South Hylton Primary School and a special session on Friday 20th November for children from St. Annes Primary School.

Do pray that those who hear the gospel presentations will respond in a positive way.

Give God thanks for the opportunity of reaching so many children with the exciting and

Love came down at Christmas
Love all lovely, love divine,
Love came down at Christmas
Stars and angels gave the sign

Dear Father,

This Christmas time, help us all to know your peace, amidst all the hustle, bustle and noise.

Help us to share and extend, the peace of Christmas - wherever we are.

May your joy be in our hearts, and your love be in all we do at this special time.

In our Saviours name, Amen
